PRESS RELEASE

The Robertson Brothers live at Kedron-Wavell in their only Queensland Show

Multi-Award winners The Robertson Brothers will be performing at Kedron-Wavell Services Club Inc on Friday 15th January 2010.

With 13 Mo and ACE Awards, along with 2 ARIA & Golden Guitar Nominations, the Robertson Brothers are one of Australia's most acclaimed vocal duos. Performing for well over 15 years now, Geoff and Ben Robertson have toured all over Australia and overseas, including all types of gigs from the Sydney 2000 Olympic Games Opening Ceremony to being the voices behind the 'Home and Away' theme song from 2000-2006.

Following the release of their latest album 'Sharing The Night', comes a National tour in which the Brothers will be performing in full concert mode playing all the hits from 70's vocal supergroups including The Eagles, the Bee Gees, The Doobie Brothers, Seals & Crofts, Dr Hook, America, Chicago, Little River Band, Air Supply, Supertramp, Bread & lots more, all of which feature on the Robertson Brothers latest album "Sharing The Night".

These long awaited shows will feature Geoff on guitar and vocals, Ben on drums and vocals plus some of Australia's best musicians in their band.

Tickets are only $18. To purchase tickets phone Kedron-Wavell Services Club on 07 3359 9122 now.
